23rd Psalm

The Lord in my Shepherd: I shall not want

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

Obituary

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:1-3

Life journey for Sister Darneice Cooper began on March 6, 1992, in Screven County to the late Henry and Beulah Mae Gordon Cooper.

She did not get the chance to accomplish many things in her earthly lifetime, but her most everlasting accomplishment, (that means more than anything in this world), happened in July, 2002, when she received Christ in her heart as her Lord and personal Saviour. Hallelujah!

"Our Mother"

Mother you were so special to us in so many ways.
Now we are going to miss those good old-fashioned days
You left us and did not say goodbye
But God knew the reason why

We will never, never understand until we enter the Promised Land.

Now we know that you are looking down at us
So we are going to love each other and have no fuss
We will now be there for each other

As you were with us in the time of trouble
Mother, we will now say goodbye
But we will meet again in the sky
Lord, thank you for coming by.

Until We Meet Again
